Sermon Title: I Give Up: Tolerance

“Tolerance is not a spiritual gift; it is the distinguishing mark of postmodernism; and sadly, it has permeated the very fiber of Christianity. Why is it that those who have no biblical convictions or theology to govern and direct their actions are tolerated and the standard or truth of God's Word rightly divided and applied is dismissed as extreme opinion or legalism?” –John Stott

Rebellion: the action or process of resisting authority, control, or convention.

Tolerance: allow the existence, occurrence, or practice of (something that one does not necessarily like or agree with) without interference.

Prodigal Son: Luke 15:11-32 And he said, “There was a man who had two sons.

James 4:17 Therefore, to one who knows the right thing to do and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Luke 6:46 “Why do you call Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say?

Titus 1:16 They profess to know God, but by their deeds they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.
